Cookie policy

At Wikifunding, we are open about how we collect and use data related to you. This Cookie Policy applies to any Wikifunding product or service. We use cookies and similar technologies to collect and use data as part of our Services as defined in our Privacy Policy which includes our sites, communications, mobile applications and off-site Services.

By continuing to visit or use our Services, you are agreeing to the use of cookies and similar technologies described in this policy.

We use cookies and similar technologies to recognize you when you visit our Services. If you're signed into Wikifunding, these technologies help us show you the right information and improve your experience in line with your personalized settings.

We use cookies and similar technologies to make your interactions with our Services faster and more secure. For example, we use cookies to enable and support our security features, keep your account safe and to help us detect malicious activity and violations of our User Agreement.

We use cookies and similar technologies to enable the functionality of our Services, such as helping you to fill out forms for our Services more easily and providing you with features, remember previous searches, insights and personalized content.

We also use these technologies to provide aggregated information to our customers and partners as part of our Services.

If you are a Wikifunding member but logged out of your account on a browser, Wikifunding may still continue to log your interaction with our services on that browser for up to 30 days in order to generate usage analytics for our Services. We may share these analytics in aggregate form with our customers.
