We may store and continue billing your payment method (e.g. credit card) even after it has expired, to avoid interruptions in your Services and to use to pay other Services you may buy. No Warranty

This is our disclaimer of legal liability for the quality, safety, or reliability of our Services. Wikifunding and its affiliates make no representation or warranty about the services, including any representation that the services will be uninterrupted or error-free, and provide the services

WIKIFUNDING

(including content and information) on an “as is” and “as available” basis. To the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, Wikifunding and its affiliates disclaim any implied or statutory warranty, including any implied warranty of title, accuracy of data, non-infringement, merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose.

Exclusion of Liability

These are the limits of legal liability we may have to you.

To the fullest extent permitted by law (and unless Wikifunding has entered into a separate written agreement that overrides this contract), Wikifunding, including its affiliates, will not be liable in connection with this contract for lost profits or lost business opportunities, reputation (e.g., offensive or defamatory statements), loss of data (e.g., down time or loss, use of, or changes to, your information or content) or any indirect, incidental, consequential, special or punitive damages. Wikifunding and its affiliates will not be liable to you in connection with this contract for any amount that exceeds the total fees paid or payable by you to Wikifunding for the services during the term of this contract, if any, or US $500.

Basis of the Bargain & Exclusions

The limitations of liability in this Section are part of the basis of the bargain between you and Wikifunding and shall apply to all claims of liability (e.g., warranty, tort, negligence, contract and law) even if Wikifunding or its affiliates has been told of the possibility of any such damage, and even if these remedies fail their essential purpose.

These limitations of liability do not apply to liability for death or personal injury or for fraud, gross negligence or intentional misconduct, or in cases of negligence where a material obligation has been breached, a material obligation being such which forms a prerequisite to our delivery of services and on which you may reasonably rely, but only to the extent that the damages were directly caused by the breach and were foreseeable upon conclusion of this Contract and to the extent that they are typical in the context of this Contract.

Termination

Both you and Wikifunding may terminate this Contract at any time with notice to the other. On termination, you lose the right to access or use the Services. The following shall survive termination:

This section shall not deprive you of any mandatory consumer protections under the law of the country to which we direct Services to you, where you have your habitual residence.

You and Wikifunding agree that the laws of the State of California, U.S.A., excluding its conflict of laws rules, shall exclusively govern any dispute relating to this Contract and/or the Services. courts in Santa Clara County, California, USA, and you and Wikifunding each agree to personal jurisdiction in those courts.

General Terms

Here are some important details about the Contract. If a court with authority over this Contract finds any part of it unenforceable, you and we agree that the court should modify the terms to make that part enforceable while still achieving its intent. If the court cannot do that, you and we agree to ask the court to remove that unenforceable part and still enforce the rest of this Contract.

This Contract is the only agreement between us regarding the Services and supersedes all prior agreements for the Services. If we don't act to enforce a breach of this Contract, that does not mean that Wikifunding has waived its right to enforce this Contract. You may not assign or transfer this Contract to anyone without our consent. However, you agree that Wikifunding may assign this Contract to its affiliates or a party that buys it without your consent.

You agree that the only way to provide us legal notice is at the addresses provided on Wikifunding.com.
